

↑ Open Wide To See What You Do Next ↑

(The arrow landed on # 6 - 'Sweet & Sour Shrimp'; As the menu item reads, players' answers must include an adjective to fill-in-the-blank of the next Ancient Chinese Secret.)

1. Spin Mr. Hu's Menu Wheel and read aloud the menu item that relates to the number you land on.
On Your Turn...

This game is fun and easy, but you need to read these quick rules and play a few rounds to get the hang of it. It will all make sense soon. Good luck!

HOW TO PLAY

HOW TO WIN

Be the player to fill in the most fortune cookies on your answer sheet after three full rounds of play. If a player fills in all 20 of the fortune cookies on his/her answer sheet before the game is over, he/she automatically wins. If there is a tie, then 2+ players win the game.

- A full round means every player gets one turn to play one of their Ancient Chinese Secrets. For a shorter game, we recommend playing only two full rounds of play.

Enjoy

If you need new answer sheets or have any questions, comments or feedback about this game, please visit www.LoadedQuestions.com, which features all of our 'creative games for active minds', including our popular Loaded Questions® games.

1. All players take an answer sheet and a pencil, and write their name at the top of the sheet.
2. All players take one of Mr. Hu's Menus, which should stand up open in front of each player and can be used to hide players' answers.
3. Remove Mr. Hu's Helpful Hints card from the deck and place it on the table for easy reference.
4. All players are dealt one playing card facedown. Players can look at the three Ancient Chinese Secrets on their card. Players will keep their playing card the entire game. (Remaining cards should be left in the box.)
5. Attach the spinner to Mr. Hu's Menu Wheel and place it in the middle of the play area.
6. The youngest player starts the game. Play moves clockwise.

SET-UP

70 Playing Cards (210 Ancient Chinese Secrets), 6 Menus, Menu Wheel/Spinner, Answer/Score Pad, 6 Pencils, 1 Helpful Hint Card, Mr. Hu's Bio Card

INGREDIENTS

Mr. Hu's Rules

I hope you enjoy playing my lovely game of 'who said what' with family and friends. If you can match players' answers correctly and use great 'wisdom' to complete my Ancient Chinese Secrets, you will crush everyone and win this game.

Ages
13+

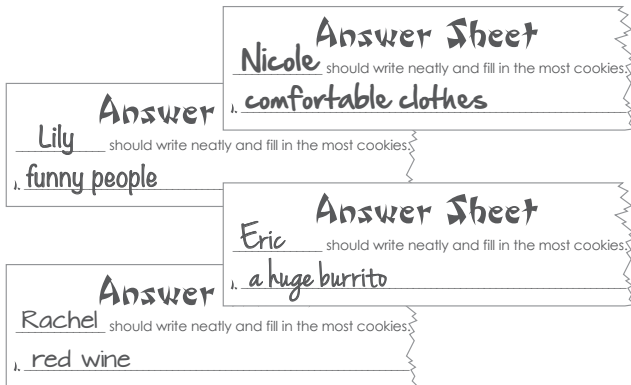

4-6
Players

2. Consider the menu item in play and read aloud any one of your card's (unread) Ancient Chinese Secrets. Say the word 'blank' when there is a blank.

3. All OTHER players, not you, secretly write an answer to fill-in the blank on their answer sheets.

- MR. HU'S HELPFUL HINT: Players are encouraged to get creative with their answers...while following the rule of the menu item in play.
- For the menu items that require answers to 'include' something, you can, and often should, write other words to complete your answer.
- Write neatly! And when writing your answers, start with line #1 and use one line per answer.

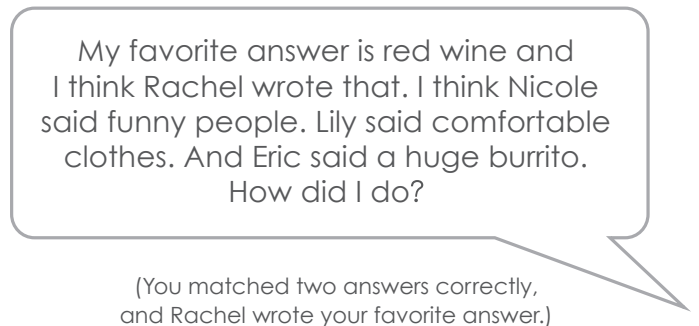

(All four answers follow the menu item in play, by including an adjective.)

- MR. HU'S HELPFUL HINT: It helps to read aloud the Ancient Chinese Secret in play multiple times during each turn, especially when players are writing answers and before answers are read aloud.
4. All answers are collected, shuffled and read aloud by the player to your right. (You will NOT see the handwriting, because the player to your right is reading the answers aloud.)
- The reader should make sure he/she can read all the answers, before reading them aloud.

5. After hearing ALL of the answers, you will FIRST pick your favorite answer (which is up to you, but should consider the menu item in play) and THEN guess which player wrote which answer.

- Players should be discreet throughout your turn and allow you to guess EVERY answer BEFORE revealing 'who said what'.
- MR. HU'S HELPFUL HINT: Per the example below, say your favorite answer FIRST and THEN attempt to match EVERY answer (not one at a time) BEFORE learning 'who said what'.

6. The player to your right reveals which player wrote which answer. You fill in one fortune cookie on your answer sheet for every correctly matched answer. The player who wrote your favorite answer fills in three fortune cookies on his/her answer sheet. Play moves clockwise until all players have played all three Ancient Chinese Secrets on their card or until a player fills in all of his/her fortune cookies.

MORE OF MR. HU'S HELPFUL HINTS

- If you're unhappy that the spinner keeps landing on the same number, feel free to pick a new menu item to play. If the spinner lands on a line, simply pick one of the two options on either side of the line.
- If the menu item you land on makes it too difficult to come up with an answer for the Ancient Chinese Secret in play, simply spin again or pick any other menu item #1-#7.
- If 2+ players write the same answer, it simply helps the person guessing 'who said what'.

↓ Fold Back And Turn Over To See How You Win ↓